

FRIENDS RESEARCH FUND 2024

Grant Application Instructions, Guidelines and Review Process

A. Description of Grant

Friends of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument (FCSNM) is pleased to provide grants through the Friends Research Fund (FRF) that supports undergraduate, graduate, and indigenous research intended to enhance our understanding, appreciation, preservation, and/or protection of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument. Areas of research may include biology, environmental sciences/education, sociology, arts and humanities, indigenous studies, history, and business. Awards are issued based on the importance, quality, and feasibility of the proposed project. Upon the completion of the research project, awardees are expected to submit a written narrative report of their research findings to FCSNM. Awardees are also invited to present their findings orally at the annual Monument Research Symposium organized and hosted by the Friends (typically in March or April) or at another suitable forum.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for funding without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, age, immigration status, or veteran status.

B. Application DEADLINE - April 26, 2024

1. Completed application form must be submitted to FCSNM via email (info@cascaadesiskiyou.org) by April 26, 2024 11:59pm PST.
2. Use the application form below to complete the following:
  - a. Project Description: Objectives and Relevance
  - b. Project Procedures and Timeline
  - c. Budget
3. Any application lacking any of these elements is deemed incomplete and ineligible.

C. Eligibility

Applicants must:

1. Identify as Indigenous American and/or have tribal affiliation.
  - a. Preference will be given to Native applicants with ancestry in and around the area of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument. As we understand it, these tribes include (but are not limited to): Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde, Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, Quartz Valley Rancheria, Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians, and Klamath Tribe.
2. Be 18 years of age or older

D. Evaluation Criteria

Each proposal will be evaluated and ranked based on:

1. Relative importance, originality, and relevance of proposed project (results of the proposed project must be in line with FCSNM's mission and hold potential application for directly or indirectly enhancing our understanding, appreciation, preservation, and/or protection of the Monument).
2. The centering of indigenous worldviews, indigenous knowledge, and indigenous forms of land stewardship, conservation, history, culture, or art.

3. The use of Traditional Ecological Knowledge (TEK) approaches and methodologies. Approaches and methodologies may include, but are not limited to:
  - a. Oral traditions and cultural knowledge
  - b. Emphasis on qualitative data
  - c. Cooperative analysis of data by traditional resource users
  - d. Basis in traditional subsistence practices
  - e. Collaborative field work
  - f. Multidisciplinary, holistic approaches
  - g. Incorporation of social and spiritual relationships
4. Likelihood of success (based on experience and qualifications of applicant within the proposed timeline and budget).

E. Awards

Awardees will be announced the week of May 6, 2024 and commitments to accept the projects confirmed by May 15, 2024. Awards on individual grants will range from $500 to $3,000.

Grant funds will be issued to awardees by May 31, 2024. (Note: 20% of award will be withheld for two deadlines: 1) 10% for an interim research summary report of 100 words plus 3 captioned photographs of field work submitted by December 31, 2024; and 2) 10% for the presentation of the Monument Research Symposium in March/April 2024 and the completion of the Final Research Project no later than June 1, 2025. Withheld funds are forfeited if deadlines are missed.

F. Other Conditions of the *Friends Research Fund Grant

Financing Restrictions. The Friends Research Fund will finance in whole, or in part, field research and investigation or documentation of indigenous connection to place and cultural values. This may be done through the fields of biology, environmental sciences/education, sociology, anthropology, arts and humanities, and business conducted by those who identify as Indigenous American and/or have tribal affiliations.

Not Covered Expenses. The Friends Research Fund will not pay for tuition or a university-covered expense. Covered expenses may include stipends for time spent in the field, travel (lodging, per diem, and mileage) and materials or supplies required for the research project.

Specimen and Material Collection. Proposals that require or anticipate the collection of specimens or samples, audio/visual recordings, and/or scientific/observational data, as well as the production of digital/GIS or hand-drawn maps, must specify that all such items will be accessioned, cataloged, and deposited in the Southern Oregon University Natural History or Digital Archive (SODA) collections, which already maintains large collections of voucher specimens and materials collected from the Monument. Any collection of specimens and/or samples from the Monument must be preceded by the authorization of BLM and the issuance of a BLM Collections Permit.

Reports. Upon completion of the project (no later than June 1, 2025), awardees are expected to submit an electronic and written narrative report of their research findings to FCSNM. The narrative report must adequately describe 1) the methods used in the project, 2) project outcomes and/or findings, 3) how project outcomes/findings promote the understanding, appreciation, preservation and/or protection of the Monument, and 4) a detailed account of the funds spent on the project. In addition, awardees are encouraged to present the results of their work orally at a suitable research forum, especially the annual FCSNM Monument Research Symposium hosted by the Friends (typically in March/April). The specific location of culturally or ecologically sensitive areas may be omitted when presenting to the public. If you are awarded and accept the grant, you acknowledge the legal obligation to fulfill all conditions required in the Final Report as described in this Application.

Awardees agree to identify the Friends of Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument as a funder of your research in all oral, visual, or written formats. Crediting Friends-sponsored research acknowledges those community supporters who make these research grants available to university students.

G. Instructions for Completing the Application Form

1. Download this Application Form from our website and open it using Adobe Acrobat Reader or Adobe Acrobat Pro (some fields have embedded auto fill that will not work in other programs). Save a copy of the form and name the file: “ApplicantName-FRF24-Application”
